

Table of contents

Principles of Patient Assessment - General Approach to the patient - History Taking - Physical Assessment - Documentation Communicating with Patient and medical staff - Approach to differential diagnosis Assessment of Symptoms - Runny nose - Red eye - Sore throat - Ear pain - Cough - Difficulty breathing - Chest pain - Heartburn - Nausea - Diarrhea - Constipation - Sports injuries - Swollen painful joints - Headache - Dysuria - Vaginal discharge - Skin Rash Assessment in the Diagnosis and Management of Chronic Diseases and Their Complications - Hypertension - Hyperlipidemia - Diabetes Mellitus - Hypothyroidism - Seizure Disorders - Congestive Heart Failure - Asthma/COPD - TIA/CVA - Osteoarthritis - Osteoporosis - Oral Contraception Assessment of Potential Drug Related Problems - Liver - Renal - Bleeding - Psychiatric Medications