

Table of Contents:

1. Perspectives and Format: What, Why and How of This Book
2. Theories and Concepts in Child Development
3. Cultural Dimensions in the Care of the Child
4. Developmentally Based Office: Setting the Stage for Enhanced Practice
5. The Use of Children's Drawing in Practice
6. The Prenatal Visit: Making a Relationship with the Family
7. The Newborn: Ready To Get Going
8. The NICU: Special Issues for the At-Risk Infant and Family
9. First Days At Home: Making A Place In the Family
10. One to Two Months: Getting On Track
11. Three to Four Months: Having Fun with the Picture Book Baby
12. Six Months: Reaching Out
13. Eight to Nine Months: Exploring and Clinging
14. One Year: One Giant Step Forward
15. 15 to 18 Months: Declaring Independence and Pushing the Limits
16. Two Years: Language Leaps
17. Three Years: The Emergence of Magic
18. Four Years: A Clearer Sense of Self
19. Five Years: Opening the School Door
20. Six to Seven Years: Reading, Relationships and Playing By the Rules

21. Seven to Ten Years: The World of Middle Childhood
22. Ten to Twelve Years: The Age of Rapid Changes
23. Thirteen – Sixteen Years: The Heart of Adolescence
24. Seventeen to Twenty-one Years: Transition To Adulthood
25. Special Families
26. Encounters with Illness: Coping and Growing
27. Encounters With Separations, Loss, Trauma and Death
28. Resources for Families

Appendices