

Table of Contents:

Section 1: Introduction to the Family Medicine Clerkship

1. Secrets to being a successful student
2. Definition and scope of FM
3. Role of medical student on FM clerkship
4. Orientation to the office/practice/community
5. Definition of family
6. Communication skills
7. Learning contracts
8. Biopsychosocial model
9. Prevention of disease in FM
10. Perioperative care
11. Practical skills for the medical student (IV -X-ray interpretation -Suturing -Venipuncture -Injections -Castings -Office lab -EKG Arterial puncture)

Section 2: Patients Presenting With a Symptom, Sign, or Abnormal Lab Value

12. Abdominal pain
13. Arthralgia/joint pain
14. Back pain
15. Behavioral problems
16. Chest pain
17. Cough and congestion
18. Dizziness and syncope
19. Dyspepsia
20. Dyspnea
21. Earache
22. Fatigue
23. GI bleeding
24. Headache
25. Heartburn
26. High cholesterol
27. Hypertension
28. Lower extremity pain and swelling
29. Lymphadenopathy
30. Pregnancy
31. Rash
32. Sore throat
33. Sleep problems
34. Vaginal bleeding

35. Vaginal discharge

Section 3: Patients Presenting with a Known Condition

- 36. Abuse/neglect/violence
- 37. Asthma/COPD
- 38. Angina and CAD
- 39. Cancer care and screening
- 40. CHF
- 41. Dementia
- 42. Depression/anxiety
- 43. Diabetes mellitus
- 44. Family discord/dysfunction
- 45. Frailty
- 46. Health care maintenance - adults and kids
- 47. Liver and biliary tract disease
- 48. Menopause
- 49. Nutrition problems and obesity
- 50. Perioperative care
- 51. School problems
- 52. Seizures
- 53. Substance abuse
- 54. STDs
- 55. Thyroid Dx
- 56. Trauma
- 57. UTI