

Table of Contents:

- A background knowledge of Parkinson's Disease: Aetiology, epidemiology, and pathology
- Recognizing a patient with PD – History and examination
- Disorders of mood and thinking in PD
- Confirming the diagnosis of PD
- Drug treatment of early PD – Motor symptoms
- Drug treatment of PD – Non-motor symptoms
- Complications of PD and treatment of advanced disease
- Surgical treatment of PD
- Non-drug treatment of PD and social issues
- Differential diagnoses of PD and their relevance for the GP
- Sources of further information and support

Appendices: Rating scales for assessment of PD

Glossary of terms

Index