Table of Contents:
Foreword; Preface; Acknowledgements;
Section 1 Osteopathy and the osteopathic lesion: a developing concept: What is osteopathy?; The Osteopathic Lesion or Somatic Dysfunction.

Section 2 Osteopathic conceptual (perceptual) models:
Structural concepts; Tensegrity; Biotypology; Neurological models; Psychologic considerations; Fluid model; The Total osteopathic lesion.

Section 3 Models of diagnosis and treatment:
Introduction to models of diagnosis and treatment;
Specific adjusting technique; Muscle energy
technique; Cranial osteopathy; Visceral osteopathy;
Indirect approach technique; Other modalities.

Section 4 Clinical conditions: Introduction;
Dysmenorrhea; Irritable bowel syndrome; Asthma; Low back pain; Headache; Pregnancy; Otitis media in the infant; Sports injuries; Blood pressure; Whiplash;
Geriatric; Index