

Table of Contents

Section 1 General patient assessment

- Doctor and patient: General principles of history taking
- General patient examination and differential diagnosis
- Ethical considerations

Section 2 Assessment in Particular Patient Groups

- Women
- Children and adolescents
- Older people
- Psychiatric assessment
- Patients presenting as emergencies
- Patients in pain

Section 3 Basic systems

- Respiratory system
- Cardiovascular system
- Gastrointestinal system
- Locomotor system
- Nervous system

Section 4 Clinical specialties

- Skin, nails and hair
- Endocrine disorders
- Diabetic and other metabolic disorders
- Kidneys and urinary tract
- Eyes
- Ear, nose and throat
- Sexually transmitted infections