Table of Contents

Part 1 Cerebral Palsy - Background Perspectives

1. What is cerebral palsy? 3
2. Epidemiology: patterns and causes of cerebral palsy Niina Kolehmainen 14
3. Aetiological considerations 28
4. How is cerebral palsy categorized, why is this done and what are the potential pitfalls? 39
5. What does the designation 'cerebral palsy' tell us, and how does this relate to other developmental and neurological disabilities? 51

Part 2 Contextual Factors and Critical Thinking

6. Evaluating evidence 59
7. The International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health 70
8. Cerebral palsy and the family 76

Part 3 Clinical Perspectives in Cerebral Palsy

9. Clinical recognition, diagnosis and assessment of children with cerebral palsy 89
10. Principles of interventions 102
11. Interventions: orthodox and heterodox. A perspective on issues in 'treatment' Margaret Mayston 115
12. Therapists and therapies in cerebral palsy Margaret Mayston 124

Part 4 Outcomes in Childhood and Beyond

13. Outcomes 151
14. Transition to adulthood 161
15. Adult functioning 169

Glossary 181
Appendices 189
Index 201